

Summary of Medicaid Client Accountability in Other States

State	Start Date	Goals	Methods	Utah has it?
Idaho	October 2006	* Encourage healthy behavior	* Premium discounts for healthy behavior	No, no Medicaid population with an income level high enough to charge premiums
			* Free weight management classes	Children & pregnant woman
			* Free tobacco cessation help	Yes
		* Proactive management of chronic disease	* Extra provider payments for treatment programs	Yes, for pain management, diabetes training and hemophilia management
West Virginia	July 2006	* Proper use of medical services (ER, PCP)	* Access to all enhanced benefits depending on willingness and compliance. Enhanced benefit package includes chiropractor, nutritional education, tobacco cessation, diabetes care.	No, these benefits are covered already without any incentive structure
Florida	September 2006	* Encourage specific healthy behaviors	* Credits to purchase medical items at pharmacy	No, Utah does not give credits
Kentucky	May 2006	* Healthy behaviors - clients w/ chronic illness	* Credits for alternative therapies, exercise programs, weight-loss, smoking cessation & reduced co-pays	No, Utah does not give credits

Questions? Please call Russell Frandsen, Fiscal Analyst, 538-1034 or Leif Elder, Policy Analyst, 538-1032